Introduction of Malaysian Junior Champion & Revision of Malaysian Champion title

Junior Champion title

Effective 1st January 2017, the MKA will be introducing the Junior Champion title for dogs entered in the Puppy and Junior Classes (6-15 months old).

At shows organised by the MKA, there will be two sets of Challenge Certificates (CC) for every breed :

1. Junior CC for dogs entered in the Puppy & Junior Class.
2. Adult CC (which will just be called the CC) for dogs entered in the Intermediate, Open & Veteran Classes PLUS dogs entered in the Malaysian bred class over the age of 15 months.

Dogs under the age of 15 months can also enter the Malaysian bred class but they MUST also enter either the Puppy or Junior class to be eligible for the Junior CC.

After the judging of the Puppy and Junior class for each sex, the judge will award the Junior CC & RCC for the winners of these two classes for each sex. The other classes will then be judged and Adult CC & RCC awarded for the other class winners for each sex in those classes.

Best of Breed will be decided between the winners of the Junior CC and Adult CC. RCC winners of either Junior and Adult CC can compete for Reserve Best of Breed if the corresponding winner of their category is selected as Best of Breed.

To become a Malaysian Junior Champion a dog must win the following :

- 3 Junior CC
- 2 Junior CC plus 3 Junior RCC
- 1 Junior CC plus 6 Junior RCC

The MYS JR CH title will be officially added to your dog's pedigree name. To receive the official Champion Certificate, an application needs to be made the MKA inclusive of the fee of RM50 (inc. GST).

Malaysian Champion title

The qualification for Malaysian Champion title is now only available to dogs entered in the Intermediate, Open & Veteran Classes PLUS dogs entered in the Malaysian bred class over the age of 15 months.
