5. Any dog registered with The MKA and at the same time registered with any other canine association not recognised by the MKA shall be de-registered.
6. Any dog registered with the MKA, found taking part in any dog show not recognised or sanctioned by the MKA shall be de-registered.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

MKA is a partner of FCI Belgium, which is the supreme authority of canine culture worldwide responsible for safeguarding canine health and international dog activities. Established since 1911, the FCI Belgium celebrates its 100th Anniversary this year, having 86 members and contract partners worldwide.

MKA is also the only recognised canine association in Malaysia with exclusive partnership and ties to longstanding International canine clubs such as the American Kennel Club (founded in 1884), The Kennel Club UK (founded in 1873) and the Australian National Kennel Council (formed in 1949).

As such, pedigrees issued by the MKA is well recognised internationally and The MKA Stud Books and records have been established since MKA's incorporation in 1925, 86 years ago.
